Roy D. Sedwick Service Award

This award was created in honor of Roy D. Sedwick, the current Executive Director, and founder of TFMA. Roy has dedicated his life to floodplain management in Texas and to TFMA both in the public and private sector. This award is presented to an individual that has demonstrated long-term leadership to the Association and made significant contributions that have clearly influenced and advanced the Association.

This award will be based on merit, and may not be presented on an annual basis.

To see a complete description of all awards that TFMA offers as well as a list of previous winners, go to www.tfma.org

Return completed nomination forms to the TFMA Executive Office at tfma@verizon.net or by fax at (817) 858-5306.
